

Looking for that great financial aid package to pay for college?
It's a puzzle. But you can help your college financial aid office put together all the pieces of that financial aid puzzle!

Make sure you file the 2006-2007 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) with the federal processor after January 1, 2006, but on or before the March 10, 2006, receipt date deadline. If the State Student Assistance Commission of Indiana (SSACI) finds that you are eligible for the need-based Frank O'Bannon Grant program and you will earn a Core 40 Diploma with a GPA of at least 2.0 on a 4.0 scale or an Academic Honors Diploma with a GPA of at least a 3.0 on a 4.0 scale, you may qualify for even more of those need-based dollars!

But you need to make sure SSACI has the correct information for you on file and that there are no FAFSA edits which may prevent SSACI from determining your eligibility for the need-based Frank O'Bannon Grant program.

After the FAFSA filing receipt date deadline of March 10th, check the SSACI eStudent web site at www.ssaci.IN.gov/estudent/ to make sure your Core 40 or Academic Honors Diploma information is correctly reported by your high school. While you are there, check to see if there are FAFSA corrections (edits) you must get to the Federal Processor by the June 10, 2006, correction receipt date deadline.
